

Prof. Federiga Bindi is Jean Monnet Chair at the University of Rome Tor Vergata, where she was also the founding director of the EU Center of Excellence. Prof. Bindi has been a visiting fellow in several institutions, including the Institute for Women's Policy Research, the Brookings Institution, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Sciences Po in Paris, the Norwegian Institute of International Affairs, the University of Lisbon, and the Université Libre de Bruxelles.

Dr. Bindi held several policy appointments in government, including serving Senior Advisor to Italian Foreign Minister Franco Frattini, and Fellow in the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee under Sen. John Kerry's chairmanship. She also led the international affairs department at the Italian National School of Administration and served as director of the Italian Cultural Institute in Brussels.

Among others, she published The Foreign Policy of the European Union: Assessing Europe's Role in the World (2022, 2012, 2010); Europe and America: The End of Transatlantic Relations? (2019) The Frontiers of Europe: A Transatlantic Problem? (2011); Italy and the EU (2011).